

Grant Writing Workshop Announcement

UI-MEPI-J and Northwestern University, Chicago Faculty will hold a three-day intensive workshop to support Academic Staff of the University of Ibadan and University College Hospital who wish to apply for grant applications.

Objective

Review major components of a grant proposal, develop a biosketch, review samples of grant application and develop draft of applications to RFA/FOA of interest by participants.

Application Deadline: Sunday October 21, 2018

Workshop Date: October 25 - 27, 2018.

Eligibility

- A principal investigator is expected to be any individual(s) with the experience, knowledge, skills, and resources necessary to carry out the proposed research. All PI(s) must have an eRA Commons account and this can be obtained from the Research Management office.
- Please note that NIH grants are expected to be multidisciplinary.

Method of application

Interested applicants should please check the UI-MEPI-J website (<https://uimepij.mepi-nigeria.org.ng/>) or FOA number on goggle for details of the funding opportunities below.

Letter of application to the Program Coordinator with one-page concept, project title, and FOA number. The PI should send names and contact details of other investigators that will be attending the workshop to mepinapplication@gmail.com
